MEET SUPER STAR: George Roussos

Cover Colorist on: STAR books.

Marvel freelance credits (past): F.F., Everything Marvel ever did, and the same during my D.C. years.

Marvel freelance credits (present): HEATHCLIFF, MAD BALLS, TOP DOG, CARE BEARS, CONAN, KING CONAN, HERCULES Graphic Novel, Etc.

My hobbies are: Photography—reading History books.

The single work of which I am most proud is: Earning my pay.

My pet peeves are: Color on my white shirts.

My place of birth is: Washington, D.C.

My greatest accomplishment outside the comics field is: Keeping a secret of the fact that I really am a rich Greek tycoon!

My oddest habit is: First thing I do when I arrive at my office, I turn off the lights. If they were making a movie of my life, I'd like to see my part played by: W.C. Fields.

The reason I got into comics was: Because I am already a Greek tycoon and I wanted to try something new.

People who knew me in High School thought I was: I didn't stay there long enough to find out what they thought of me.

My favorite performers are: Benny Hill.

The last good book I read was: HERODOTUS.

The last good movie I saw was: THE GREEK TYCOON.

The biggest influences on my work include: Stan Lee, Jack Kirby, Rembrandt—Norem, Dick Tracy.

My greatest unfulfilled ambition in the comics field is: To color a cover that no separator could ever possibly separate.

The worst part of my job is: Having all the editors coming in saying their cover must be colored first.

When nobody's looking I like to: Turn on the light.

The one thing I really want the world to know about me is: That I only use black & white colors.

Dear HEATHCLIFF,

I love all your comics. I was happy to hear they are going to be published monthly, too.

I wish I could have a cat just like you! A cat who dumps over garbage cans, steals fish and milk, and who is just an ordinary BAD CAT!

Say hi to Sonja for me, and beat up Spike once or twice for me, too.

I would like to ask a question. Could you please have HEATHCLIFF'S FUNHOUSE published again?

Melissa Rattenni
Prosperity, PA

Nice to hear from you once again, Melissa!

But are you sure you want a cat like Heathcliff? Even after reading Julie's letter below? Oh, well, you've been warned!

We were sorry to end HEATHCLIFF'S FUNHOUSE—but you shouldn't worry too much. Now that HEATHCLIFF is monthly, you're really getting the same number of adventures overall—one brand-new comic every month! The advantage is that you can follow continuity even better than before (as in the ever-popular Vice Mice series!).

(As for beating up Spike... that can be arranged. And probably will!)

Dear HEATHCLIFF,

I love all your comics and the cartoons you show.

I had a cat like you with the same name AND he acted just the same. My mother wasn't too crazy about him, so we gave him away. Now I know how Iggy and his family feels! My cat didn't have as many adventures, but he was weird.

I am eleven years old and have been reading your comics for three years. I even buy your comics every Saturday (almost).

Julie Beechiner
Syracuse, NY

See, Julie? You've learned how Iggy's family feels, and if that isn't education, we don't know what is.

Thanks for sharing your cat-astrophie story!

Dear STAR,

Could you put out a comic with Top Dog? I would like to see a strip where good ol' Heathcliff meets Top Dog! Please!

Love ya forever,

Lydia Tyree
White Marsh, VA

Funny you should mention that, Lydia... We've been putting lots of Top Dog stories in the back of HEATHCLIFF comics, and we'd hate to have you miss any of them. (To catch you up, Top Dog found his way back to Joey, and they're off on all kinds of new, nutty adventures!)

We'd love to start up TOP DOG again, in his own comic book, but we need your support to do it. Sooo, if that's what you want, write and tell us!

(For the record, too, Heathcliff did meet Top Dog once, way back in TOP DOG #9. Try getting a back copy from your comics dealer—it's worth it!)

Dear STAR Comics,

I have been collecting HEATHCLIFF books for about a year now. Heathcliff is so funny and adorable!

But I am missing about fourteen of his books. I was hoping you could deal with this. Can you send me an order form?

Nicky East
Radcliff, KY

Unfortunately, Nicky, we don't handle Heathcliff's storybooks—which is what we think you're talking about. We are glad you brought the storybooks to everyone's attention, though—it's yet another way to satisfy that heartfelt hankering for Heathcliff!

Our advice is to consult a bookstore. Let us know meow it turns out!

Dear HEATHCLIFF,

I love your comics, except for one thing. I don't want to sound like a sour puss (heh, heh), but I'm sick and tired of this. You're putting all the attention on TOP DOG! You might as well make it his comic!

Please fix up the comic!

Steven Mills
Webster, NY

Does making HEATHCLIFF monthly help out at all? You get more of what you like, and TOP DOG fans get more of what they like... and everyone likes what they get! (We hope!)

Of course, Steven, if you give Top Dog a chance, you might even find Lydia's enthusiasm (see letter, above) catching!

Write us again, and let us know what you think.

Dear HEATHCLIFF,

I'm one of your biggest fans. I've got 19 issues of HEATHCLIFF and 9 issues of HEATHCLIFF'S FUNHOUSE!

My two favorite stories were issue #7 ("Elastic"), and issue #16 ("Return of the Vice Mice!"). My two favorite artists are Warren Kremer and Angelo Decesare.

Oh! By the way, could I have Heathcliff's autograph?

Keep up the great, fantastic, super, excellent, awesome, radical, and terrific work!

Terry McNamee
Granger, IN

We will most humbly try to meet your fantastic, super, excellent, radical, and terrific expectations, Terry. And we'll try to be modest about it, too! (Though that seems a little harder).

Getting Heathcliff to sign his name, however, is going to be the really difficult task here—mainly because he doesn't know how to write!

Will you settle for a purr with postage?
